Santa Clara, CA (PRWEB) October 1, 2010 -- Min Zhu, co-founder of WebEx and its former CTO, is the subject of week-long protests and disruptions organized by Michael Zeleny, his former business partner.

“ registered sex offenders, sex workers, adult industry performers... in honor of Min Zhu ”

Citing testimony given in sworn deposition by Zhu's daughter Erin that she was brutally raped by her father at the age of fourteen, presented as evidence in Santa Clara Superior Court case number CV809286, Zeleny states executives accused of rape by family members have no place in positions of public trust.

Zeleny is appearing at the corporate headquarters of New Enterprise Associates in Menlo Park and Cisco WebEx in Santa Clara every workday this week, along with a handful of other protesters, accompanied by live musicians and large signs bearing the portraits of Min Zhu, Subrah Iyar of WebEx and Scott Sandell of NEA.

At each appearance this week, Zeleny carries a Winchester 12 gauge shotgun slung over his shoulder and a bandolier of ammunition strapped across his chest. Menlo Park and Santa Clara police have been present at each protest.
