Santa Clara, CA (PRWEB) October 7, 2010 -- Following two weeks of protests at New Enterprise Associates (NEA) organized by Michael Zeleny, against his former business partner Min Zhu, co-founder and former President and CTO of WebEx

“ one of China's pioneering investment fund ” and former NEA Venture Partner, NEA's voluminous application for a temporary restraining order was denied in response to a 15-page opposition by Zeleny's attorney David W. Affeld.

Filed Tuesday, 5 October 2010 in San Mateo County Superior Court by NEA's corporate counsel, as part of Case No. CIV499465, the restraining order sought to prevent Zeleny from protesting outside NEA's offices. Zeleny and his associates have appeared at the corporate headquarters of New Enterprise Associates in Menlo Park and Cisco WebEx in Santa Clara nearly every weekday for the last two weeks, accompanied by live musicians and large signs bearing the portraits of Min Zhu, Subrah Iyar of WebEx, and Scott Sandell of NEA. At each appearance, Zeleny has carried a Winchester 12 gauge shotgun slung over his shoulder and a bandolier of ammunition across his chest. Menlo Park and Santa Clara police have been present at each protest.
